

Dear FCC, I am a relatively new subscriber to satellite radio and I enjoy the different formats it allows me. I am concerned that, at some point, it will not be possible for me to obtain news program and local traffic information. I ask that you do not take this service away from us.

Respectfully,
Alf Moebius